

Will Rogers PTO Agenda
November 10, 2022 @ 5:45pm
Multipurpose Room

Attending: Melissa Grimes, Whitney Janzen, Brynn Mays, Mallory Stulce, Melody Edwards, Mike Stutzman, Michelle Magnusson, Erin Robichaux, Alicia Hale, Lauryn Proud, Allison Jennings

I. Welcome and Introductions

II. Minutes approved – Mike motioned, Melody seconded, no objections

III. Budget Update (Lauryn Proud) – Current Balance: $28,346

A. $98 from McAlister's, no check yet from Chipotle (have emailed and waiting to hear back), over $14,000 from fundraising, T-shirts still available but wrapping up this weekend

IV. Principal's Remarks – Anissa could not attend, but Ms. Shroeder asked for help decorating the cafeteria, also discussed the need to add more to the cafeteria sign-up for parent volunteers to help with comfortable cafeteria, have conscious discipline packets for families (could connect with January reading night)

V. Learning Moment

VI. Upcoming Activities and Ways to Support

A. Library – BOOK FAIR: $2000 profit in cash, $800 in credit, able to use that money for kids who weren't able to purchase; VOLUNTEER: wanting to put teachers check out days available so parents know (reach out for grandparents too), double checking to make sure that the volunteers are being well utilized (keep communicating)

B. Restaurant Nights – 11/14 where is Papa Murphy's?? (online code?), 12/13 The Mule all day!

C. Staff Appreciation – need to advertise about the pies, may need to use budget to fill in any extra spots, Monday we'll start hanging banners, pies are delivered on Friday, reach out to Rebecca Yeager if help is needed

D. Events:

i. Wondrous Wildcats – need silverware, waiting to get sign-ups in then we'll fill in the gaps, setting a budget of $1500 for Assistant Principal funds ($750 in t-shirts, leftover for catering), Mallory is going to find tablecloths that will come out of PTO funds

ii. January (Family Pajama Storytime) – do it in different areas based on age groups so we can have age appropriate readers, where do we want to do hot chocolate, going to partner with Title I

iii. February (Indoor Movie Night) – in the cafeteria, maybe utilize a food truck who will match funds, ask Stephanie Crandall about how to set up, use camping chairs

iv. March (BINGO Bash) – partner with Title 1 to emphasize math night, each grade has a theme for a basket but fill multiple baskets from the donations which will then be raffled off, also start gathering donated items for a silent auction, potentially looking at March 30th (need to get date approved)

v. Chocolate – do it after spring break starting March 20, waiting to get date approved by Anissa

VII. Work Groups: planning to hang banners on Monday, and decorate the cafeteria on Thursday (Lauryn is heading these up), still need to inventory Meet the Masters and the basement

VII. Meeting adjourned – Next meeting is December 8 @ 5:45pm